Salisbury Police Department

Recruitment and Selection Brochure

"Quality service through quality people"

The Salisbury Police Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer

A Nationally Accredited Law Enforcement Agency

Message from the Chief of Police:

In a democratic society, the ultimate responsibility for peace, good order and law observance rests with the community of citizens of that society. The complexity of modern societies usually dictates that policing efforts be coordinated and directed by a force of paid professionals who derive their power from the public they serve. The role of the professional police officer is to supplement and aid community efforts, not to supplant them. Peacekeeping and observance of the law must be a joint police/community effort in order to succeed. The fundamental mission of the Salisbury Police Department, then, is to provide the professional leadership and professional support required to sustain and improve the community's efforts to become free of crime and disorder.

To members of the public, the police officer they encounter in their daily lives is the police department. Officers who are competent, polite and caring will positively influence citizens and will cause them to develop confidence in and respect for their police department. For this reason the Salisbury Police Department reaffirms its view that one of the basic and continuing responsibilities of every member of this organization is to strengthen the affinity between the public and the police service.

In keeping with this philosophy the following principles are considered basic to the understanding of the role of the Salisbury Police Department.

- To engage in activities that reduce crime and disorder and enhance the quality of life;
- To recognize that the power of the police to fulfill their functions and duties is dependent on the public approval of their existence, actions and behavior, and on their ability to secure and maintain public respect; and
- To seek and preserve a positive relationship with the public by constantly providing fair and equitable service and enforcement of all laws without regard to personal opinion about individual laws; by the ready offering of professional service and consideration to all members of the public; by the ready exercise of courtesy, and by the ready offering of individual sacrifice in protecting and preserving life.

Mark Wilhelm, Chief of Police

AUTHORITY

The Salisbury Police Department is organized under authority of the Charter of the City of Salisbury. The Chief of Police is the administrative head of the Police Department and serves as authorized in North Carolina General Statute 160A-281.

The Chief of Police, and each officer of the Department, shall have the powers and authority vested in peace officers as authorized by the General Statutes of North Carolina. Such powers and authority are granted for the purpose of enforcing North Carolina State Laws and Salisbury City Ordinances, preserving the peace of the City, suppressing disturbances, preventing crimes, and apprehending offenders.

Such powers, duties and authority may be exercised within the corporate limits of the City of Salisbury, one (1) mile beyond the corporate limits, within any property or right-of-way owned by the City whether it be located within or without the corporate limits.

An officer may arrest persons outside the corporate limits and outside the City's extraterritorial jurisdiction when the person has committed an offense within that territory for which the officer could have arrested the person, and the arrest is made during such person's immediate and continuous flight from that territory. Any officer pursuing an offender outside the corporate limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of the City shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and benefits to which the officer would be entitled to if acting within the City.

The Police Department is an executive branch of municipal government for the City of Salisbury, established by city ordinance. Functions assigned to the Police Department are: 1) prevention and detection of criminal activity; 2) apprehension of offenders; 3) protection of life and property; 4) enforcement of laws and ordinances; and 5) provision of other services that may be deemed proper functions of a police agency.

The Department shall be organized with such operational and support units as may be established by the Chief of Police for the purpose of achieving the objectives of the police function. The authorized personnel strength of the Department shall not exceed that authorized by the City Manager. Department personnel and resources shall be organized in a manner that ensures maximum efficiency and effectiveness at minimal cost. It is essential that the organizational structure be relevant and flexible, and that a constant and continuing program of inspections and evaluations is established to ensure that the needs of the Department and the citizens of Salisbury are met.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Human Resources Department administers the recruitment and selection process for staff vacancies. Vacant positions are published on an Employment Opportunities Bulletin as vacancies occur. Information about posted vacancies is also available through the 24-hour Job Opportunities Hotline (638-5355). Applications are not accepted for positions not currently available. The Human Resources Department is open from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday.

Your application is the primary source of information in considering you for employment and, therefore, should represent your best effort. Fill out all sections completely and to the best of your ability. Indicate the specific position for which you are applying. If you want to apply for positions in different occupational areas, you must submit a separate application for each position. A personal resume may be submitted as a supplement to the application. Unsigned or incomplete applications will not be considered. Providing false or misleading information or documentation may result in your application being disqualified or your dismissal, if employed. After the application closing date, applications will be reviewed. Based on the evaluation, a limited number of applications will be referred to the hiring department. The hiring department will contact those applicants in which they are interested to arrange personal interviews. You will be notified when you are no longer being considered for the position, or when the position has been filled.

If you wish to apply for another vacancy at a later date, you may use the application already on file providing that it is less than 90 days old and for a position in the same occupation area. To receive consideration for an additional vacancy, you must contact the Human Resources Department by 5:00 p.m. on the closing date of the posted job. If there have been any changes in your employment status or history, you must update your original application.

All candidates (including those applying for temporary or seasonal positions) are asked to submit to drug testing prior to being offered employment. A positive drug test result eliminates an applicant from further consideration. Candidates for regular full-time and part-time positions are required to get physicals paid for by the City.
